Sustainalytics Ranks INNIO ESG Risk Rating as Number One amongst 500 companies in the Machinery industry

- INNIO makes significant progress in advancing its commitment to sustainability with low ESG risk rating
- Sustainalytics ranks INNIO number one among more than 500 companies in the industry with lowest risk
- INNIO achieves top rating across the Machinery Industry

Jenbach, Austria – April 27, 2022 – INNIO today announced that it has received an Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) rating of 11.0 from Sustainalytics, assessing INNIO to be at “Low Risk” of experiencing material financial impacts from ESG factors. INNIO’s ESG Risk Rating places it number one of more than 500 companies in the Machinery industry assessed by Sustainalytics.* The assessment identifies INNIO’s strong performance across a broad range of ESG metrics.

“INNIO is relentlessly committed to ensuring that we incorporate effective ESG practices across all our operations. We are proud to have achieved Sustainalytics’ rating as the lowest ESG risk ranking in our industry,” said Dr. Olaf Berlien, president and CEO of INNIO. “Securing a top rating in Sustainalytics’ extensive rating process marks a significant milestone and shows that our teams are committed, innovative and effective in building a sustainable future for our customers, employees, and the environment. This clearly demonstrates that INNIO is on the right track in contributing to the energy transition and building operational excellence.”

The Sustainalytics rating is yet another accomplishment in advancing INNIO’s ambition to elevate and operationalize the company’s ESG commitment. Additional recent achievements include:

- Establishing the INNIO Sustainability Review Board
- Publishing INNIO’s first Sustainability Report “Together for Sustainable Future”
- Defining INNIO’s Sustainability goals
- Conducting an ISO audit and renewal of certifications
- Receiving a Gold Medal rating from EcoVadis

Sustainalytics’ ESG Risk Ratings measure a company’s exposure to industry specific Material ESG risks and how well a company is managing those risks. This multi-dimensional way of measuring ESG risk combines the concepts of management and exposure to arrive at an assessment of ESG risk, i.e., a total unmanaged ESG risk score or the ESG Risk Rating, that is comparable across all industries. Sustainalytics’ ESG Risk Ratings provide a quantitative measure of unmanaged ESG risk and distinguishes between five levels of risk: negligible, low, medium, high and severe.
